Appearing on a battery complaint signed by Mrs. Maude Brookman, 52, 25308 Cypress st., Robert O'Neal, 38, son-in-law of Mrs. Brookman and living at the same address, pleaded not guilty Monday in Gardena Justice court. Trial was set for Aug. 21. The complaint charged O'Neal struck Mrs. Brookman during a family argument, inflicting a deep laceration above the plaintiff's eye. Vermont sheriff's deputies arrested O'Neal at Narbonne ave. and Lomita blvd. and jailed him on a drunkenness charge. Tuesday Mrs. Brookman filed the battery complaint. She was taken to Torrance Memorial hospital with Edmond Brookman, 84, who told deputies that O'Neal had struck him also during the argument. My Stake in America...

A Business of my own to serve you better

ONE OF THOUSANDS OF INDEPENDENT MOBILGAS BUSINESS MEN

Gordon Wilson, of Los Angeles, realized a long-cherished ambition to go into business for himself when he opened his Mobilgas dealership in 1938. He served his country for three and a half years in the Coast Guard, and his father, L. J. Wilson, took over in the interim. Gordon is back now just where he wants to be... making a great success of his own Mobilgas dealership, with a staff of ten men.

As owner of a small business serving the motoring public, I have a real stake in America. That stake becomes more valuable to me as I increase my business by improving my service to you.

The products I sell are tops... Mobilgas, with flying horsepower—Mobilol, largest selling motor oil in the world—and a full line of Mobil motoring essentials. It's my job to match the top quality of those products with high caliber service. That's what makes my stake in America valuable to me... useful to you.

With me are thousands of other independent Mobilgas dealers across the nation... all selling the same products and giving the same courteous, intelligent service. All are with me in assuring you the maximum in motoring pleasure wherever you see the sign of the Flying Red Horse.
